

Cureton, Diebolt Head Shrine Grids

Armed Forces

Two of the most sought-after prep football players in California history head the team rosters for the 16th annual Shrine North-South Football Classic at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Aug. 3.

Mickey Cureton of Centennial High in Compton, holder of several rushing records in the Southern Section CIF book, and Doug Diebolt, devastating tackle from Los Altos, will oppose each other. Both gained all-American High School recognition on the Coaches' Scholastic mythical squad and both have more than 50 university scouts on their doorsteps. Cureton announced he will withhold revealing the college of his choice until after the Shrine spectacle. Diebolt also is "undecided." He is a 6-3, 230-pound star.

In addition to his all-American rating, Diebolt was named lineman of the year in the tough Santa Clara Valley League, all-Midpeninsula, all-Central Coast and all-Northern California.

Cureton was selected as "Player of the Year" by Helms Athletic Foundation last fall.

The North squad also claims three performers picked on the Catholic School all-American. This trio comprises End Jim Squeri of St. Ignace (San Francisco), Tackle Monte Consani of Riordan (San Francisco), and Halfback

Navy Lt. Jeffrey A. Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley E. Carr of 1544 Marcelina Ave., helped to land a fully-equipped force of Marines on the beaches of Camp Pendleton Marine Corps Base in Southern California during Stan Brown of Salesian in Richmond. From the South aggregation, Dale Nosworthy, Long Beach Wilson's pass-catching whiz, was named to the Scholastic all-American. He caught 54 passes for 938-yards and 11 touchdowns last fall.

the simulated wartime amphibious training exercise, "Alligator Hide."

He is a crewmember aboard the dock landing ship USS Comstock, which was part of 30 ships which put 10,000 Marines ashore, using landing craft and assault helicopters.

Army Pvt. Frank B. Angeleri, 26, son of Mrs. Marylow Angeleri, Manhattan Beach, completed eight weeks of advanced infantry training April 21 at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

He received specialized instruction in small unit tactics and in firing such weapons as the M-14 rifle, the M-60 machine gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

His wife, Margaret, lives at 1613 W. 209th St.

Registration Opens for Adult Summer Session

Registration for summer school adult education classes will be open through June 23, according to Raymond Collins, principal of Torrance Evening High School.

Students who wish to receive high school credit for their courses are asked to make an appointment with a counselor at Torrance High School. Other adults may register during the first week of class.

Summer session will take place June 19 through July 28.

A $3 TUITION fees will be required at the time of registration from all students 21 and older who are not working toward a diploma. New students will pay a 25-cent incidental fee. There will be no fees for English for foreign speaking or citizenship classes.

All classes except physical education for women and woodshop will meet at Torrance High School from 6:45 p.m. to 9:45 p.m.

Physical education for women will take place from 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays at West High; and woodshop classes will be conducted at North High School Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays from 6:45 to 9:45 p.m.

COURSES at Torrance High include: bookkeeping, business machines, English for foreign-born, and English Review I, II, and III.

Basic Red Cross first aid, general mathematics, modern science, oil paintings, conversational Spanish, and beginning shorthand.

Brushup shorthand and dictation, beginning typewriting, brushup typewriting, U. S. government, U. S. history, sewing and dressmaking, and traffic safety education.
